

Alcohol, Psychiatry and Society

29- 30 June 2017 | St Anne's College, Oxford

12.00 - 12.40 Thomas Mueller, History of Medicine, Ulm/
Ravensburg, Germany
"German psychiatry and medical attitudes to alcohol consumption, c. 1820 - 1990"

12.40 - 14.00 LUNCH

Panel 4

14.00 - 15.00 Discussion opened by Len Smith's, Thomas
Mueller's and Waltraud Ernst's comments
on main themes

Conference

Date: 29- 30 June 2017
Postal adress: St Anne's College
Woodstock Road
Oxford (UK)
OX2 6HS

Contact us

th.mueller@zfp-zentrum.de wernst@brookes.ac.uk

Picture on title:
<https://wellcomeimages.org>

CHAMPAGNE DRIVING AWAY REAL PAIN.
*Wine Cures the Gout, the Colic, and the Phtisie.
Wine is to be all men the very Best of Things.*

XXX/June 2017

zfp einladung

OXFORD
BROOKES
UNIVERSITY

zfp
Südwürttemberg

29 June 2017

8.30 - 9.00 Registration etc.

Panel 1

Chair: Thomas Mueller, History of Medicine, Ravensburg, Germany

- 9.00 - 9.40 David Korostyshevsky, History of Medicine, University of Minnesota, USA
"From Aqua Vitae to Poison: The early-modern transformation of alcohol in the Anglo-phone world"
- 9.40 - 10.20 Aude Fauvel, History of Medicine, Institut universitaire d'histoire de la médecine et de la santé publique, University of Lausanne, Switzerland
"Alcoholic Beasts: Alienists and the Problem of Animal Drunkenness in Nineteenth-century France"
- 10.20 - 10.40 BREAK
- 10.40 - 11.20 James E. Moran, History, University of Prince Edward Island, Charlottetown, Canada
"Alcohol and Alienation in New Jersey, c. 1810 - 1890"
- 11.20 - 12.00 Mauricio Becerra Rebolledo, History of Science, CEHIC, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, Spain
"From nervous food to powerful agent of degeneration: Alcoholism and alcoholic psychosis in Rio de Janeiro and Santiago de Chile (1870 - 1920)"
- 12.00 - 13.00 LUNCH

Panel 2

Chair: Len Smith, History of Medicine, University of Birmingham

- 13.00 - 13.40 Jasmin Brötz, History, University of Koblenz-Landau, Germany
"Healing the Nation's Mind. The fight against alcoholism in the public discourse on rationalisation in late nineteenth and early twentieth-century Germany"
- 13.40 - 14.20 Simon Heap, History, Oxford Brookes University, UK
" 'In the Hot and Trying Climate of Nigeria the European has a Much Stronger Temptation to Indulge in Alcohol than the Native': Alcoholism in Nigeria, c. 1880 - 1940"
- 14.20 - 15.00 BREAK
- 15.00 - 15.40 Iain D. Smith, Consultant Addiction Psychiatrist, NHS GGC and Researcher, Centre for History of Medicine, University of Glasgow, UK
" 'Finish' Drinking and 'Secret Cures': A Snapshot of Alcohol, Psychiatry and Society in Scotland in 1895"
- 15.40 - 16.20 Konstantinos Gkotsinas, History, University of Crete, Rethymnon, Greece
" 'Disciples of Asclepius 'or 'Advocates of Hermes'? Greek psychiatrists and alcohol at the turn of the twentieth century"
- 20.00 Informal Conference Dinner

30 June 2017

Panel 3

Chair: t.b.a

- 9.00 - 9.40 Adéla Gjuričová, History, Institute of Contemporary History, Czech Academy of Science, Prague, Czech Republic
"A Cradle of Psychotherapy: Alcohol addiction treatment in Socialist Czechoslovakia, 1948 - 1989"
- 9.40 - 10.20 Christian Werkmeister, History, Martin Luther University, Halle Wittenberg, Germany
" 'Doctor, now from face to face, answer quick: Will there be a diagnosis, or rather a verdict?' Medical, moral, and political treatment of alcoholics in late Soviet psychiatry, 1970 - 1991"
- 10.20 - 10.40 BREAK
- 10.40 - 11.20 Nina Salouâ Studer, History, University of Bern, Switzerland
"Assimilation by Alcohol: The role of France's Mission Civilisatrice in the spread of alcoholism in twentieth-century Algeria"
- 11.20 - 12.00 Akira Hashimoto, History of Psychiatry, Aichi Prefectural University, Japan
"Medical and Social Approaches to Alcoholism in Post-WWII Japan"